RESOLUTION No. 2020-0057

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING A FIREWORKS DISPLAY FOR THE CITIZENS OF THE CITY OF THE HIGHLANDS IN THE ABSENCE OF AN ORDINANCE GOVERNING THE USE OF FIREWORKS.

WHEREAS, the City of The Highlands has a draft ordinance for the use of fireworks within the city that is currently being written, acknowledging the lengthy process of thoroughly vetting content;

WHEREAS, only Class “C” fireworks will be used;

WHEREAS, if Class “B” Special Fireworks are used, it will only occur if a licensed individual is overseeing detonation;

WHEREAS, the individuals hosting the event purchase an insurance policy, insuring against bodily injury and property damage in the amount of $1,000,000 (one million) dollars by single limit policy;

WHEREAS, the area where the fireworks are detonated is free of tall grasses and shrubs and no structures of any type within 100 yards in any direction;

WHEREAS, a trained firefighter is continually on the premises for the duration of the event;

WHEREAS, the City of the Highlands appreciates the celebration of a national holiday;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, in keeping with the spirit of our nation’s birthday, that this resolution is valid for one-evening display of fireworks for the enjoyment of the citizens of the City of The Highlands.

PASSED AND APPROVED the 25th day of June 2020.

Mayor, Carol Moore
